Mr. W. Larry Brown

Dedication

To put into a few, well-chosen words the actual worth and value of a man who taught for nearly a decade is difficult, and even presumptuous, for who can capture in a paragraph or two the final estimate of a man.

Mr. Brown had the capacity to seek knowledge with depth, insight, and discernment as is the nature of a true student. More importantly, however, he had the ability to impart that knowledge to his students - as is the nature of a true teacher.

During his nine years at Duanesburg Central School, he taught with willingness, understanding, and kindness, striving always to foster and develop the interests of his students. He realized each student's uniqueness and individuality. As a result of his work, he gained the respect of his students, his colleagues, and the community.

Regretfully, Mr. W. L. Brown is not with us to receive this dedication in appreciation of his endeavors to educate youth.

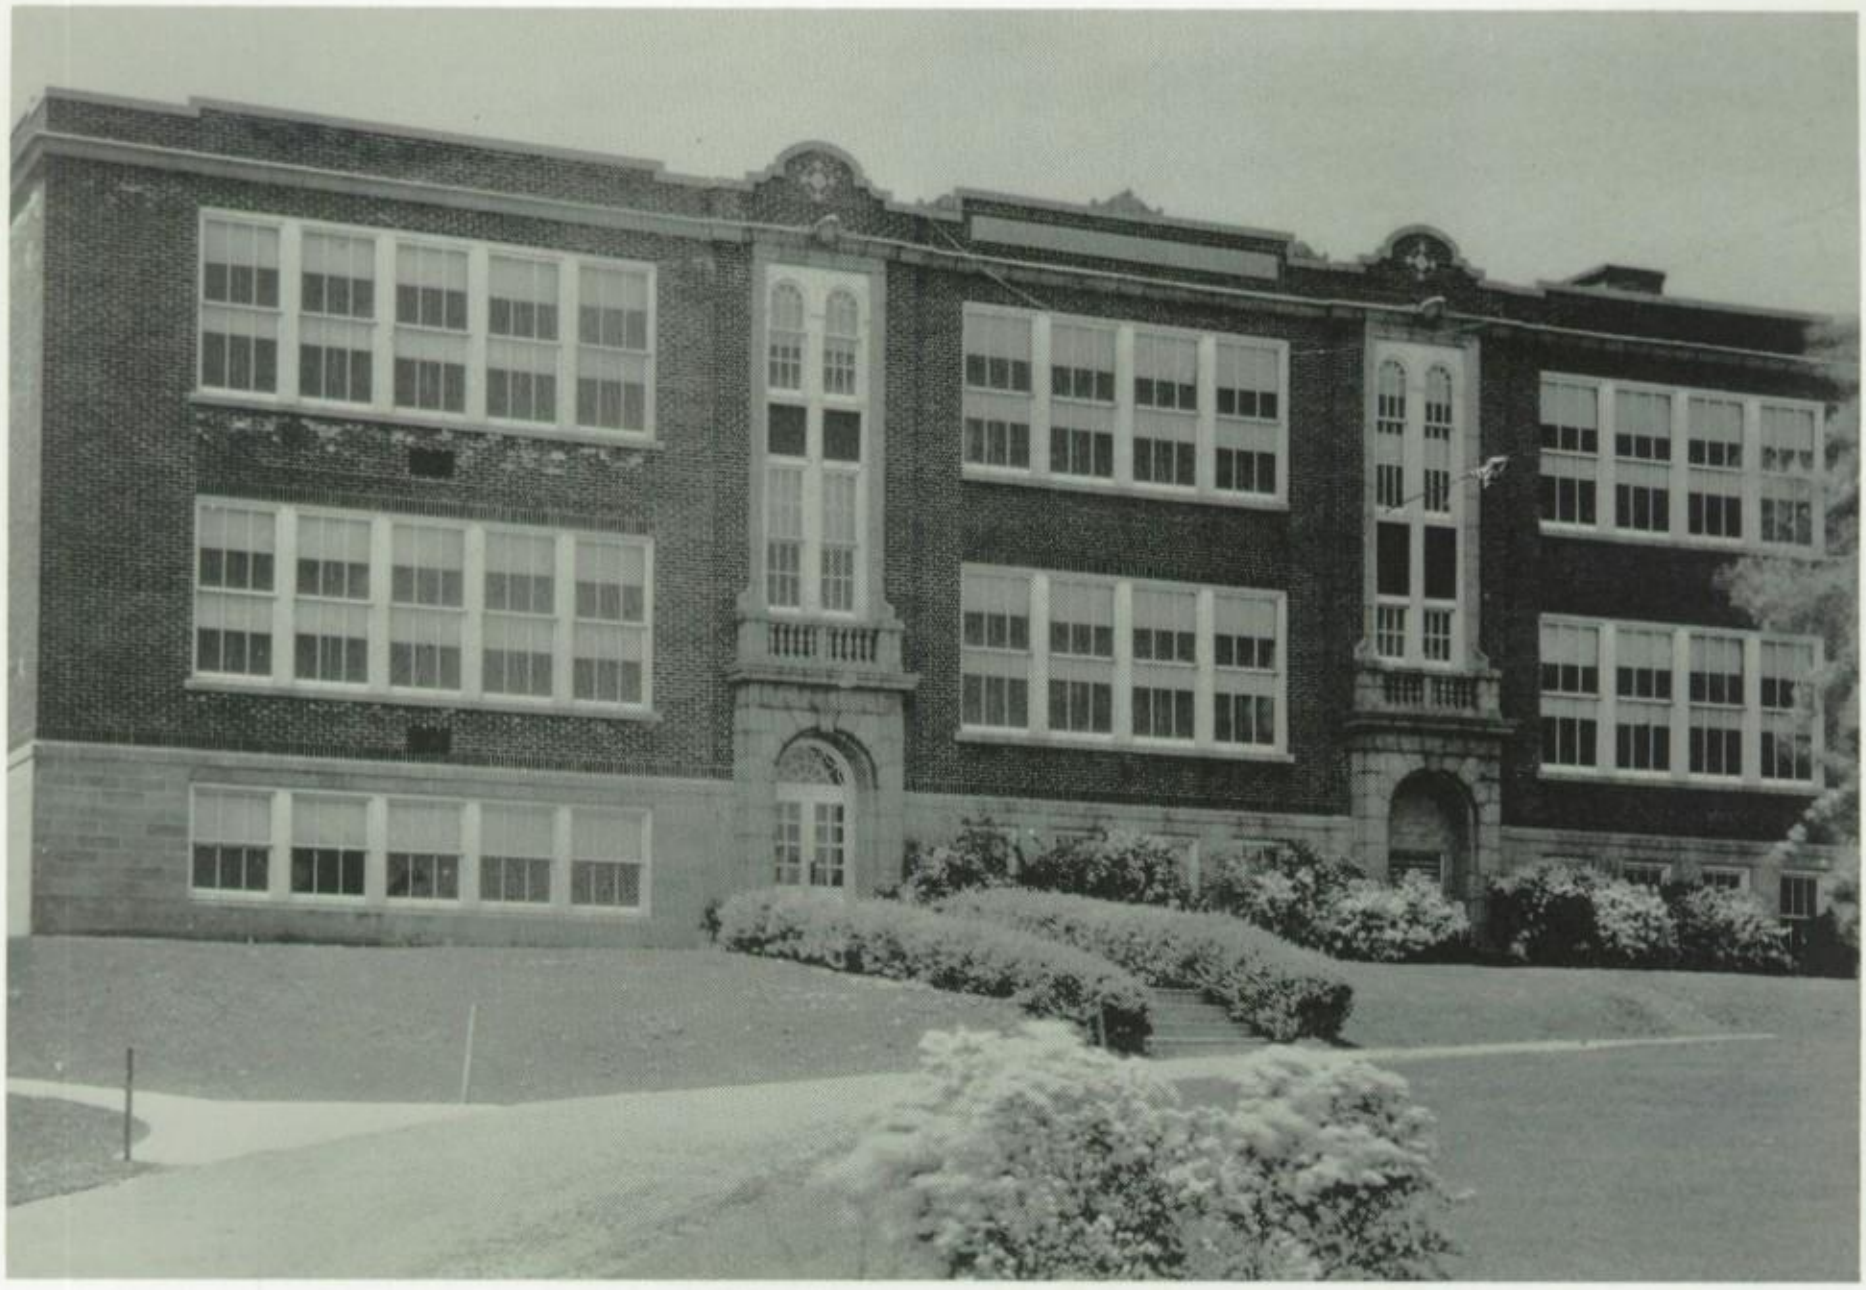
Foreword

Forty-two years ago, the schools of Quaker Street, Thousand Acres, and Delanson merged. A building which was to become the nucleus for future additions was constructed in 1925 and the first yearbook was printed in 1926.

Although the school and the students have experienced many changes, the basic ideals and aims of an education have not changed.

The purpose of this yearbook is to illustrate "A Glimpse of the Past" as expressed in the quote from the play Richard II by William Shakespeare, "O call back yesterday, bid time return."



Alma Mater

Oh, let us sing tonight

And cheer the merry throng

And inspire our team to victory

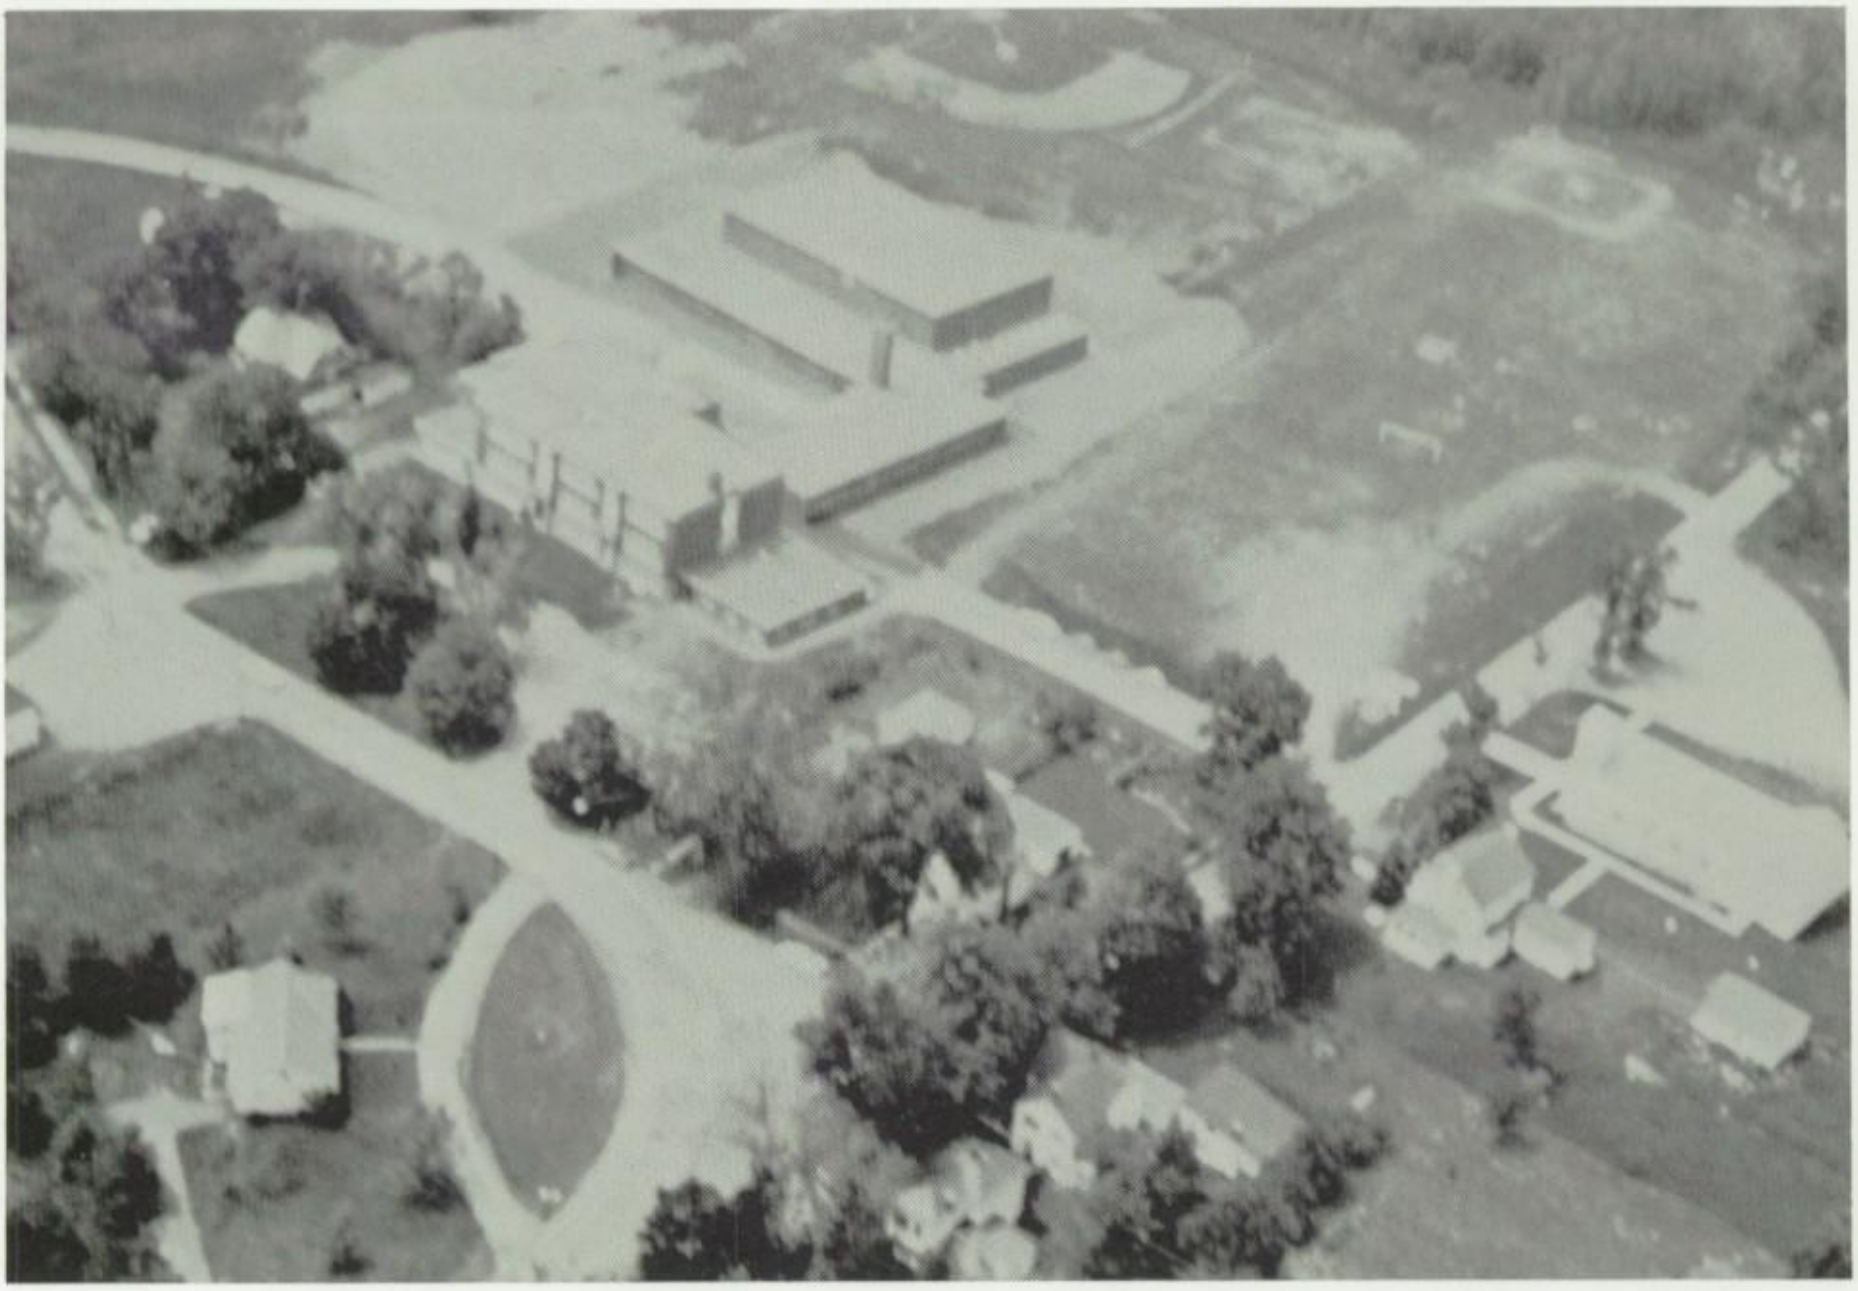
As we sing our battle song.

It will always be our rule

To fight with courage bold,

For the dear Duanesburg Central

And the Purple and the Gold.



Alma Mater (Revised Version)

Oh, Hail to Alma Mater

Dear Mother of us all.

We sing thine every glory

Within thine ivied walls.

We love thy hallowed places,

Revere thine honored goals.

Oh dear Duanesburg Central,

And the Purple and the Gold.

The class of 1965 represents the largest class ever to graduate from Duanesburg Central School. It is a class of varying and diversified talents. It is a class which has a remarkable amount of potential ability. Some of this ability has indeed already been manifested. The receipt of your high school diploma is evidence of the use of a portion of this potential.

However, size should be regarded in its proper perspective. The fact that this class is relatively large is in itself no guarantee of future success for the group. There is no magic in sheer size. Achievement is a peculiarly personal thing, attained by personal effort. Each member of this class has some personal talent and ability which can be utilized for the benefit of both society and the person, if the individual wishes to so use it. Each member of this class is capable of contributing in his or her own manner to the sum total of society's achievement. This will be done, not because you have been or are a member of a large or small group but because you, as an individual, desire to enhance your knowledge and increase your contribution to society.

The Faculty and the Administration congratulate you on your success to date. We are sure that when you return from time to time as alumni you will each have your own success story, individually created.

Schuyler E. Constantine

ACTIVITIES

Student Council

The Student Council is an elected representative government which has a hand in school affairs. There is a representative from each class whose duty it is to report to the Student Council the problems and ideas of his class. The Council acts as liaison between the students and the Board of Education and the faculty.

International Relations Club

The purpose of the I.R.C. is to improve international understanding. Our immediate goal is to improve our knowledge of Latin America since Kennett Olivieri spent the past summer in Ecuador. Humberto Jeada is here from Peru, and we are planning to send one of our students to Colombia next summer.

Office Assistants

The girls act as receptionists, do some filing, prepare lists, operate the duplicating machine, address envelopes, and act as messengers.

The boys act as assistants by dismissing the buses.

National Honor Society

The Delanson chapter of the National Honor Society received its charter in 1944. Since that time, many students have been selected as members after they have proven themselves eligible by their Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service, and today their names are all on record in the national capital.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

Y-Teens

The Duanesburg T-Teen Clubs groups of Junior and Senior High School girls affiliated with the Schenectady Y.W.C.A. The purpose of the Y-Teen Club is to develop understanding of people of all races and religions and to create opportunities for service to their school and community.

Junior
Future Homemakers
of America

Senior
Future Homemakers
of America

The purpose of the F. H. A. is to promote the joys and satisfactions of personal, home, and community living now and in the future.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club was formed this year to create an outlet for acting and production talent as D. C. H. S. Excellent early enthusiasm resulted in the casting of our first play "The Mouse that Roared." Membership grew as the year progressed. At years end nearly forty people had shown an intense interest in dramatics.

Fire Patrol

Directed by Mr. Ferrone, the Fire Patrol was established to help evacuate all students during fire drills and in the event of a real fire.
The duties of the Fire Patrol are slight but necessary for our school's safety.

Technical Club

The Technical Club is composed of students in grades 9-12 who are technicians in the Projectionist and Drama Clubs. These students operate necessary equipment for dances, assemblies, and programs. They also maintain a shop to repair the audio, video, and lighting equipment belonging to the school.

Projectionist Club

The Projectionist Club is open to students in grades 10-12 who are interested in, and capable of operating projectors.
Its purpose is to show films for teachers, and to train other students to operate the projectors.

High School Band Brass Section

This section of the band consists of sixteen members. There are three members in the Percussion section.

Reed Section

In the reed section there are twenty-eight members. Last year the band received an "A" rating at state competition.

Baton Corps

The members of this group are:
DRUM MAJOR: Francis Basile
SENIOR TWIRLERS: Bonnie Anderson, Patricia Wilson, Charlotte Bradt.
JUNIOR TWIRLERS: Judy Lane, Patricia James, Sandra Taber, Deanna Quinby.
BANNER CARRIERS: Ardith Taber, Barbara Elbrecht.

The Choristers

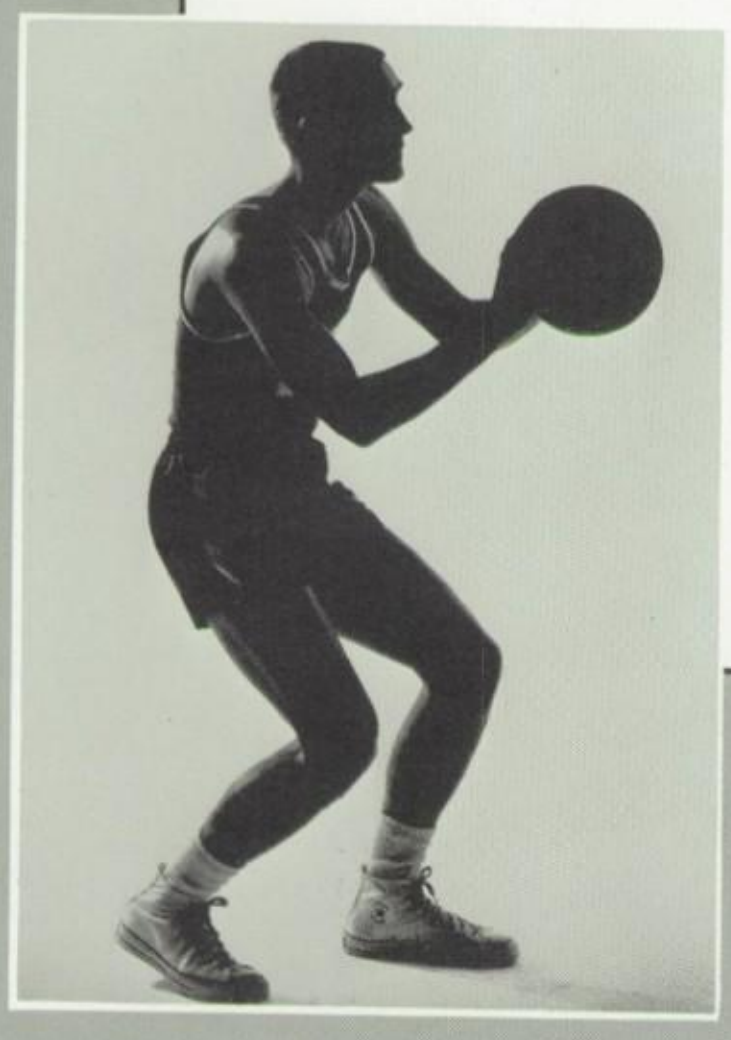
Dance Band

Junior High Band

The Robed Choir

The Robed Choir, under the direction of Mr. Gordon Mason, consists of thirty-seven members. In the past two years they have toured the state of Vermont and upper New York state. The first tour was in the spring of 1963 through Vermont. Their destination was to Wells River, but they sang at several schools on the way. In 1964 they traveled to Potsdam, singing at schools on the way again. During this trip they took time to visit Ausable Chasm. They are planning a tour to Maine this year.

The Robed Choir has also sung for several concerts here at Duanesburg, including a Christmas Program and a concert for the Foreign Exchange Program, in neighboring schools, and in the Schenectady area.



ATHLETICS

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is composed of students in grades 9-12 who work as scorekeepers, time-keepers, team managers, and ticket sellers for the basketball games.

GLENN HANKINSON

Ken Olivieri spent the summer in Ecuador, in South America. He lived with the Viteri family in Manta. He attended a private Catholic School, San Jose. For the first half of the year he attended English Classes to help them learn English and to learn some Spanish. The English teacher was educated in New York State. Ken spent the second half of the year attending regular classes with the Seniors. He played basketball on a Championship team. A Peace Corp worker had taught basketball at all the schools. He also spent a week sightseeing. Two of the major cities he saw were: Quito, the capital and Quayaquill, where all the bananas are brought for shipment.

We hope to continue this program by sending a Junior to Colombia this summer.

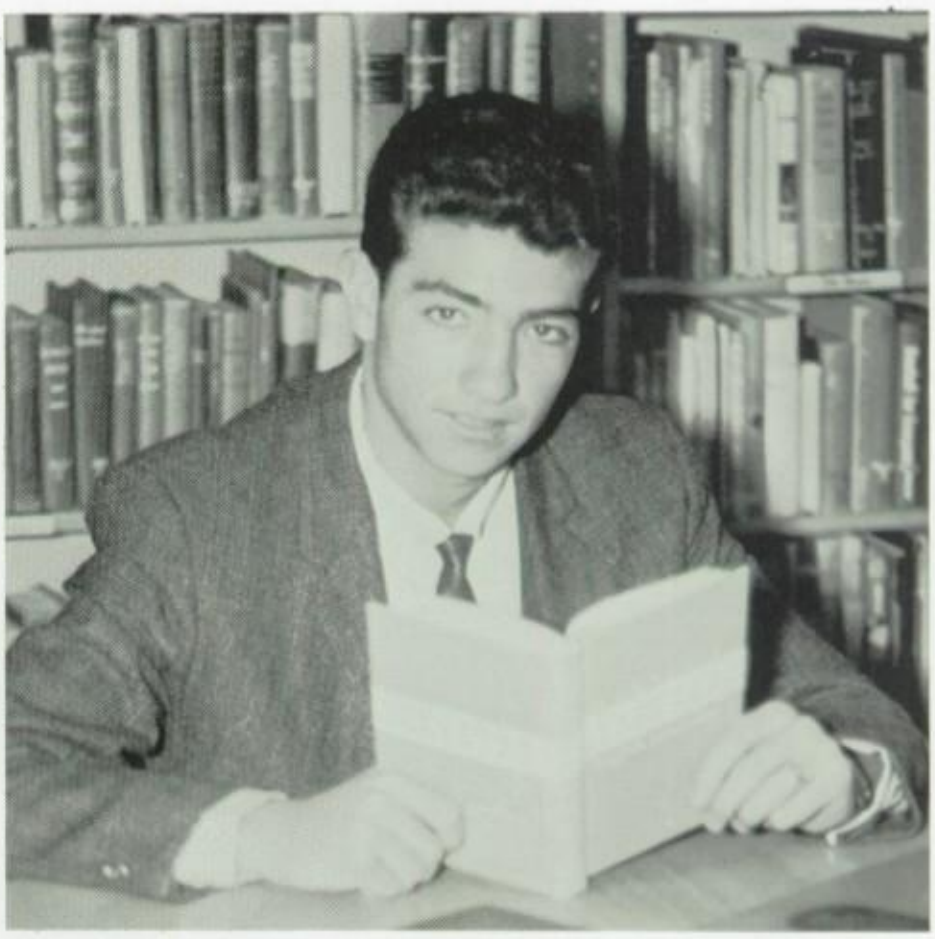
Umberto Jeada, who is our Exchange Student from Lima, Peru, lived with the Joseph Olivieri family during his stay in this country.

He was chosen by a woman of the fellowship to visit our school. His family consists of a sister, a brother, mother, and his father, a doctor.

He attended a military school, Francisco Bolognisi, for a year. He studied English for four years before he came here.

Beto plays basketball (captain of his team), is a very good swimmer, and plays soccer.

On his return to Peru, he will start his senior year at El Sallo.



The Viteri Family

This is the family that Kennett stayed with during his visit in South America.

The basketball team gave Kennett a party the Sunday before he left for America.

Intramural Team of Seniors.

Helping the basketball team become champions, Kennett received a medal. He also received two certificates for mastering Spanish.

AN OPEN ROAD...
OR A DEAD END STREET?

When commencement is over, where do you go from there?

Not too many years ago, a high school education was sufficient for most jobs; college was almost a luxury except for those who planned careers in such fields as medicine and law.

Today, the pattern is entirely different. Advances in technology affect everyone in every business . . . and, frankly, a high school education is seldom enough to equip you to meet the challenge of the present . . . to help you get a job with a future.

What's the answer? More education . . . four-year colleges, junior colleges, community colleges, technical schools, extension courses, anything at all which will increase your knowledge, develop your personal skills.

There are jobs waiting . . . but these jobs call for knowledge and skill. General Electric is just one of the many companies which will have job openings in the years to come for those who can meet job requirements. There are new products, new technologies on today's drawing boards . . . with still others yet to be thought of . . . which will call for people with education, training and ability. The future needs not only men and women to come up with ideas, but also people to put those ideas into practice . . . designers and developers, scientists and salesmen, technicians and teachers . . . people with sufficient education to fill jobs.

Now it's up to you. You may choose the broad highway open to you through more education . . . or wander down the dead end street of lost opportunities. If you keep learning, you'll keep growing . . . growing with our nation in the age of space.
